

BEST PRACTICES

Career Expos

The Global EDGE Tech Prep staff planned and executed 2 separate Career Expos and was a participant in 1 Career Expo in the '04-'05 school year.

Greenville High School Career Fair

In April '05, the Global EDGE Tech Prep Consortium was asked to participate in the Greenville High School Post Secondary Career Fair. The Global EDGE was able to give Tech Prep information to over 375 students at this event.

BEST PRACTICES

Hunt County Career Expo

In February '05, the Global EDGE staff worked with the Hunt-Delta-Hopkins Consortium to host the first ever Hunt County Career Expo. The Career Expo was held during a school day at Texas A&M Commerce. Eleven high schools participated in the event bringing in over 350 high school students to the Career Expo. Over 50 business partners participated in the event, ranging from veterinarians to jewelers to engineers to police officers. Various departments from Collin College and Texas A&M Commerce were also present.

BEST PRACTICES

Allen High School Career Expo

In April '05, the Global EDGE staff worked with Allen High School to host their first ever Career Expo. The Career Expo was held in the evening in the high school cafeteria. Over 250 students and their parents attended the event. Over 50 business partners participated in the event, ranging from grocery stores to banks to architects to fire fighters. Various departments from Collin College as well as other college's in the area were also present.

