

Parenting Conference - “Parenting, the Underdeveloped Skill”
Panhandle Tech Prep
Best Practice – 2005

Approximately 1,000 parents and educators attended the annual all-day event, of which Panhandle Tech Prep is a proud silver sponsor. This year’s event was on April 14th and had over 40 breakout sessions. Participants are awarded CEU’s from Amarillo College for their attendance.

“Parenting, the Underdeveloped Skill,” P-TUS, is a collaboration between Amarillo ISD Council of PTA’s, Canyon ISD Council of PTA’s, Amarillo ISD and Canyon ISD. The event is open to all schools and parents in the Panhandle.

Panhandle Tech Prep not only displayed a booth among the vendors present, we also conducted one of the breakout sessions. LeAnne Vogel and Lisa Bentley presented “School to Careers – What Does the Future Hold?” and discussed emerging and evolving occupations within the Panhandle area. For more information, email Panhandle Tech Prep at shelley.sparks@amaisd.org